On arriving at the hall, the party pulled up, and looking back saw one of the company, Mr. Joseph West, lying THE First class Fronch Bright the foot of a tree. The gentlemen rode back, and found that Mr. West was dead, the front of his head and face being fearfully battered in. Capt. Blic, will have quick dispatch for the It is supposed that Mr. West was riding along above port. the park without noticing where he was going, . For Freight or Passage, apply to and that he struck the trunk of a tree with och force as to cause his instantingous douth. He was only twenty-seven years of age. ON FIRE ALL NIGHT AT SEA. The crew of THE Spanish barque a Ramsgate sumek, the Edward Marie ( Denne. muster), reported that while off the Dutch coast, in the North Sea, on the evening of the 9th April, the cubin, from some chuse or other, caught fire. Backets of water were thrown upon the firmes, to put them out, but without success. The master got down into the cubin, to put out the fire, but he was nearly suffocated with the smoke, and it was with difficulty that he was pulled up by the grow. The fire conit, by cutting away the deck. This was done at six different places, but without success. En dervours wore they made to smother the fire. by placing sails over the cabin door, and in this they were partially successful. It however continued to burn and smoulder all night, and in the morning assistance was obtained from the Lond Willoughby smack, and the fire, after lasting fourteen bours, was put out. The vessel, however, made so much water that there was every prospect of her foundering. Accord- Gavito, Muster, will have quick disputch for the ingly, the stores, &c., were placed on board and above port. ther smuck, the Storm, and the next afternoon she sank. The crew were landed at a Dutch port; and five or six days clapsed before they were passed home.

I stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinose have of late yours been compelied to coin to express the numerous objects of the Tea market, calling at Hongkong, if suf- foreign relations has imposed upon them, are ficient inducement offers. Buch and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exerciscs for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Panti promuciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The type graphy displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a van economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Olinese publications The scope of the work is so great, and F required by shippers, at the time of make utilitarian purposes so complete, that a ing freight engagements, certificates of In. ference to its pages enables it person, wh surance, against Tea or Silk, on first-class understands English to communicate effectively English Companies, may be obtained from the with nutives who understand nothing but Cl nese. In this respect the work will be foun indispensable to all Europeans residing China, and to the natives themselves it or plains subjects fully, with which very few deed of thom are perfectly acquainted.
